A STATEMENT TO THE FORT WAYNE CITY COUNCIL

The executive committee of the Fort Wayne Citizens' Council on Human Relations, meeting at noon today, voted to urge the City Council to take the following immediate actions:

- 1) State publicly the current status of the study now under way concerning the possible reorganization of the Mayor's Commission on Human Relations.
- 2) Because we feel that the present uncertain situation is impairing the effectiveness of the Commission, we urge a careful decision as soon as possible.
- 3) We urge that more meetings be scheduled soon to hear the many community organizations who have requested a chance to voice their views on ways of strengthening the Commission.
- 4) If these deliberations are going to take an extended time, we earnestly recommend that the present order to freeze the appointments of Commission members be rescinded and the Mayor be encouraged to fill the vacancies.

We hope that comments can be made on the above points tonight. In any event, we look forward to an early answer to these important community questions.

Robert D. Allen, Vice-President
Fort Wayne Citizens'
Council on Human Relations
